

The Health Plan Donates $340,000 to West Virginia Food Banks in 2021

WEST VIRGINIA – January 5, 2022 – The Health Plan (THP) is incredibly proud to have supported West Virginia food banks through $340,000 in donations in 2021.

Over the past year, THP's donations helped several nonprofits fill their pantries and provide warm meals to West Virginians in need. These contributions allow each organization to continue changing lives and making an impact across the state.

"We are extremely grateful for the generous donation from The Health Plan, especially during such a critical time," said Laura Tolley, gifts officer of Mountaineer Food Bank. "With more than 260,000 West Virginians struggling with hunger, we need as much support as possible to continue delivering food to those who need it most."

One of THP's top priorities has always been to contribute to the health and well-being of the communities they serve. THP recognizes the ongoing need within West Virginia communities and will continue to help those working to fight hunger.

"We are honored to help these outstanding organizations in their efforts to better our communities and state," said Jeff Knight, president and CEO of The Health Plan. "We want to make sure these nonprofits have the proper resources to help others year-round."
